Sunday 24th September 2017

On Sunday 24th September 2017, in Blood Cancer Awareness Month in the heart of Birmingham, 15,000 cyclists will line up to start their unforgettable 100 mile route on completely closed roads, taking them through the picturesque Worcestershire and Herefordshire countryside before returning to Birmingham.

Whether you are a seasoned sportive rider, a cycling newbie on a mission to complete a century ride or a charity fundraiser in search of an epic challenge, Vélo Birmingham will deliver an unforgettable experience for each and every participant.

Vélo Birmingham is now officially SOLD OUT but Cure Leukaemia has charity places available for you to ride for Team Cure Leukaemia!
